Dear Kahlaoui,

We are happy to notify you that your paper:

Negation in Standard Arabic Revisited

has been ACCEPTED for presentation at ICALP2019 (ex-CITALA), 7th International Conference on Arabic and Language Processing, 16-17 <https://icalp2019.loria.fr>, to be held on October 16-17, 2019 in Nancy, France, and for publication in a volume of proceedings to be published in the Communications in Computer and Information Science (CCIS) with Springer. Springer needs all source files (LaTeX files with all the associated style files, special fonts and eps files, or Word or rtf files) and the final pdfs of all of the papers.

Please, ensure that neither plagiarism nor self-plagiarism has taken place. Springer will check each article. We advise you to do it by yourself. Ensure also that your paper DOES NOT EXCEED 15 pages. Be aware that papers that do not conform to the format specifications will not be published in the proceedings.

We will send you instructions for sending your package for Springer.

Please find below the review results. Please carefully take them into account when preparing your camera-ready version.

Each paper must be covered by at least one of its co-authors with a registration. Papers will only be accepted and published in the proceedings if at least one of its authors has officially registered for the conference no later than the registration deadline 20-September-2019 23:59 GMT. You can register now at the conference website: <https://icalp2019.loria.fr/registration/>

We will contact you separately on the details of your presentation. The camera-ready deadline is on August 5, 2019.

Best regards
